

BT Index Austria ATX

Description

BT Index Austria ATX is an open-end investment fund mostly for listed shares at the Vienna Stock Exchange, a minimum of 85% asset under management reproducing the ATX \(Austrian Traded Index\). The ATX is permanently updated on the official website of the VSE, allowing the permanent follow-up. BT Index Austria ATX may not invest in shares which are not included in the ATX. The difference is placed in fixed income instruments, which are used in order to optimize the risk factor belonging to listed shares.

BT Index Austria ATX is an equity fund designed for investors who are experienced in the capital market and wish to make investments denominated in Euro. This is a unique product among the equity funds registered in Eastern Europe therefore also on the Romanian market, having the ATX index as a benchmark. Once the structure of the index is modified, the fund's portfolio is adjusted accordingly. When equity markets rise, companies from the ATX index experience an increase in their market value, giving the fund increased performance. BT Index Austria ATX is recommended for investors who seek increased liquidity and developed markets, which provide significant growth due to western markets exposure, but also to emerging markets (Eastern Europe - members of the EU).

It must be remembered that investment in fund units represents an opportunity for earnings as well as an assumed risk. Past gains do not represent a guarantee of future performance.

1 Advantages:

- Denomination in euro allows reduction of currency risks Eur vs. Ron
- Exposure to a mature market with well-known companies
- Increased liquidity and the potential for higher growth (attractive yields) because of exposure to the Austrian market and to markets in Eastern Europe.

1 Costs:

- Purchasing fee: 0%;
- Redemption fee:
 - 4% if the period of ownership ≤ 360 days
 - 0% if the period of ownership > 360 days
- Management fee: 0.15%/month - this fee is included in the value of the fund unit

The open end investment fund BT Index Austria ATX is registered under Nr.Reg. CNVM

BT Index Austria ATX is registered at US Internal Revenue Service (IRS) with the following Global Intermediary Identification Number (GIIN): 2UZSA2.00005.SF.642

Risk profile

Welcome among dynamic investors!

Because of a minimum level of 85% of assets under management invested in listed shares, we may consider BT Index Austria ATX useful for diversification of a portfolio, reduction of currency risk and exposure to a developed, mature and with growth potential market. High transparency is given by the ATX index itself, easy to follow and to be understood by any investor. Stock investments may represent a potential profit for BT Index Austria ATX and investing in this fund may provide a potential gain from companies with regional exposure to Central and Eastern Europe. We are sure that you will find BT Index Austria ATX as a successful partner, especially if you see it as a long term investment.

Good luck investing in a unique product on the Eastern European market!
